

Rapleys Edinburgh Office to Focus on Motor Trade & Roadside in Scotland

The increasing number of roadside instructions from established clients is such that Ray Gormley, partner in charge of agency services in our Edinburgh office, is to focus on further developing our specialist services throughout the region.

Ray, who has 20 years of experience in the Scottish commercial market will handle a number of dealership, filling station and related agency instructions from established clients including Pendragon, Lookers, Somerfield/Co-op and Majestic Wine Ltd. Ray will be focussing on Scottish based automotive groups and other roadside concerns who have property interests North of the border.

In addition, we are able to provide clients with a comprehensive suite of related professional services including Landlord and Tenant, Valuation, Planning and Building Consultancy from our specialist teams in Edinburgh.

“We’re looking to build on the work that I have already undertaken for clients in this sector. The Motor Trade team at Rapleys have an unrivalled insight into motor trade and roadside occupier’s property needs through our client base and track record. To complement this, I have contacts and knowledge built up over 20 years throughout Scotland. Therefore, whether disposing or acquiring, I believe we are well placed to offer ‘hands on’ solutions to clients property issues in Scotland.”

Currently, there are few practices offering a dedicated automotive presence North of the border and it is hoped that we can provide clients with a bespoke service to meet their specific specialist requirements.

Ray will be working closely alongside the established automotive team, led by Mike Pearce, which already operates out of the Practice’s Manchester and Huntingdon offices.
